The Institute for Community Inclusion supports the rights of children and adults with disabilities to participate in all aspects of the community. As practitioners, researchers, and teachers, we form partnerships with individuals, families, and communities. Together we advocate for personal choice, self-determination, and social and economic justice.

Key Interest Areas: Employing people with disabilities in community settings; Supporting children and young adults with special health care needs; Accessing general education, and transition from school to adult life; Expanding local recreation and school activities to include people with disabilities; Promoting technology that aids participation in school/community/work activities; Building organizations' ability to serve culturally diverse people with disabilities; Examining the impact of national and state policies on people with disabilities and their families.
