The West Springfield Division of School and Family Consultation offers school consultation, intensive in-home services, and parent education throughout western Massachusetts, southern Vermont, and Connecticut. "Our consultants, teachers and therapists provide staff, students and their families with services that enhance cognitive and social growth as well as positive behavioral change. Our team supports an average of 16 school districts each year with services ranging from one-time assessments to weekly site visits. Consultation may be provided on an individual basis, to a program, or to an entire school district."
